Lenoir, NC – August 4, 2008. The LHS Foundation and the Harper School of Performing Arts are proud to present the 2008 Harper Concert Band Summer Concert.

Harper Concert Band Summer Concert

Sunday, August 17, 2008

3 pm

Hibriten High School, Herbert B. Stevens Fine Arts Center, Lenoir, North Carolina

Admission is free and open to the public.

The Harper Concert Band will perform a diverse selection of well know compositions including the Rossini's William Tell Overture and highlights from Lerner and Loewe's Camelot. Mr. John Craig, director of the Harper Concert Band will conduct along with Ms. Camilla Graeber and Mr. Ed Whitener. Soloists Martha Cartee, Frances Malcolm and Catie Price will perform a flute trio called Flute Cocktail.

The LHS Foundation was founded in 1985 and established the James C. Harper School of Performing Arts which opened in January 2006. The Foundation is in the early stages of planning for the complete renovation of the historic Lenoir High School Band Building into a performing arts center for the people of Caldwell County and the surrounding counties.

The Harper School for Performing Arts was founded in 2006 and provides high-quality musical and performing arts instruction that fosters the creative instincts of its students.
